Dante And The Mystical Tradition

Book Description. In this study, Steven Botterill explores the intellectual relationship between the greatest poet of the fourteenth century, Dante, and the greatest spiritual writer of the twelfth century, Bernard of Clairvaux. Botterill analyses Bernard's appearance as a character in the closing cantos of the Paradiso in the context of his medieval reputation as a contemplative mystic, devotee of Mary, and, above all, a preacher of outstanding eloquence.

It is a timely corrective to over-glib discussions of Dante and the 'ineffability topos'. Though ultimately Bernard remains a slippery character, even for Botterill, Dante and the Mystical Tradition stands out as an example of scholarly method and 'scholarly' eloquence beyond the specific confines of the topic.
