Duty Quotes (491 quotes) - Goodreads

Duty is a central concept on morality. Not rights. Wherever there is a right, there is a duty. Can there be duties without rights? Yes, according to Kant. If we cannot imagine our maxim as a universal law, then we have a perfect duty not to perform the act that is covered by the maxim (and that occasioned its formulation).

Kant's Moral Philosophy

(1) I ought to do my duty as long as I am alive; and (2) It is my duty to go on living as long as possible. Kant's basic value judgment that doing one's duty is the highest goal implies (1) but it does not imply (2); and only (2) could serve as a basis for condemning suicide.
