Canon 85 gives us a basic definition: a dispensation is the relaxation of a merely ecclesiastical law in a particular case. Since the notion of dispensation isn't normally found in civil law, most people don't have a natural "feel" for what it really means, and for how and when it can be used. Let's examine the issue more closely.

The legal thriller is a subgenre of thriller and crime fiction in which the major characters are lawyers and their employees. The system of justice itself is always a major part of these works, at times almost functioning as one of the characters. In this way, the legal system provides the framework for the legal thriller much as the system of modern police work does for the police procedural.
